Representatives might include financial counsellors, legal representatives, family members, friends and members of parliament.

The process we follow when we resolve a complaint:

We will acknowledge your complaint in writing or verbally within 24 hours (one business day) of receiving your complaint, or as soon as practicable.

We will assess and determine your complaint objectively and without bias, with input from your financial adviser and you. As part of our assessment process, we may request further information or documentation from your financial adviser and you. We have a range of methods to resolve complaints. We select the method, or combination of methods, that we think is most likely to resolve the complaint quickly, fairly and efficiently.

If we are unable to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction within five business days (in the first instance), then we will respond to you in writing within 30 calendar days from the date that we receive your complaint. If we anticipate delays in our response, we will advise you as soon as possible but no later than the 30-day response period.

Our written response to you will include:

- An overview of the facts of the complaint;
- The issues raised in the complaint and our assessment of those issues, and;
- Our decision about how the complaint should be resolved and why, including a particular remedy (if any) to be provided to you.

If you accept our determination, we will finalise (formally or otherwise) the complaint by providing you with the particular remedy specified in our response.

If you feel our response and/or determination is inadequate or if you have not received a response within 30 days, you have the right to complain to the Australian Financial Complaints Authority Limited (AFCA). HFA is a member of AFCA and they can be contacted on 1800 931 678.
